TECH STACK

ABOUT ME

I'm Kushal, a dedicated Computer Science student focusing on full-stack development, particularly within the JavaScript ecosystem. I have experience with the Flutter framework and Firebase, and I am knowledgeable about Appwrite. I have also worked on frontend development for both mobile and web.

I am interested in learning AWS and other deployment technologies. My goal is to contribute to innovative projects, bringing my passion and enthusiasm for coding to the forefront. As I pursue this journey, I aim to delve deeper into full-stack development, honing my skills and making meaningful contributions.
